Me outside of 59E59 theaters!

Two rare chamber operas:
one a tale of comic hypocrisy, the other a tale of pure devotion.

The Wandering Scholar is an amusing story about a young wife, a priest, a traveling scholar; and what the husband finds when he returns home.

Sāvitrī is taken from an episode in the Mahābhārata. It is the mythic tale of love to the lover, the child to the mother, the song to the singer, a wife to her husband.

Presented at 59E59 Theaters
59 East 59th Street, New York, NY

May 10 at 8:00 p.m., May 11 at 8:00 p.m.,
May 12 at 2:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m., and May 13 at 3:00 p.m.

Tickets available through Ticket Central
Tickets are $35 each

Gustav Holst (1874–1934) a British composer most famous for his orchestral score The Planets left a much larger musical legacy. Travelers presents 2 of his operas. The Wandering Scholar, is based on a book by Helen Waddell, and has a libretto by Clifford Bax. Benjamin Britten and Imogen Holst edited and created the chamber performance edition after the composer's death. Sāvitrī, features a libretto by the composer. Gustav Holst translated the story from Sanskrit himself, and the opera became a model for chamber opera in the 20th century.

Last month I shot a Mitsubishi commercial! If you missed it, you can see it HERE and watch the TV commercial HERE. Please click here to view the Mitsubishi tempdrive website.

Thank you to everyone that voted for me to be your temp while you get the day off to drive around in the new 2012 Mitsubishi Outlander Sport SE! Although the voting is over, there's more fun to be had. Three of the temps will actually take the place of three lucky people for the day. Want to see how it turns out? Be sure to check back HERE on May 31 st. The three lucky winners that voted get to take a day off with the Outlander Sport while a temp replaces them (hopefully me)! Watch the video to see why I make a great temp...
